WESTERLY

made in each case:

Estate of George F. Rarbour. First Westerly, having once been a resident recorded.

Estate of Prederick E. Fowler. First to Ashaway for Perial. Sine is survived by three daughters. Mrs. J. C. Frisble, and final account allowed and ordered recorded.

Estate of George P. Olimpsad. Inventory $1.7°7.79. Received and ordered recorded.

Estate of Minnie P. Willard, Inventory 256,991.96. Received and ordered record-

Estate B. Frank Colon. Account con-tinued to April 19.
Estate of William Lobban. Account continued to April 19.
Estate of Lydia Kenneth. Account al-lowed and ordered recorded.
Estate of Horaco R. Sisson. Petition

Estate of Caroline A. Champlin. Pe-tition to file and record foreign will granted. Estate of Harold C. Rossburg. Pe tition for the appointment of a grardi-th. Received and continued to April 13 with record of notice. Estate of David T. Kenneth. Petition for the appointment of a guardian in Childe Island. Received and continued to

Estate of Afberta B. Crafts Abbott.
Petition for the appointment of a guarsian. Continued to April 19 with orter of notice and citation on husband, Due to the absence of the scheduled speaker, Rev. E. J. Cleveland, who is visiting in New York, the Tuesday speech at the Colonial club luncheon was postponed a week.

Rev. B. U. Hatfield will deliver an illustrated lecture on "The Land of the Evangeline," at the First Baptist church Thursday evening.

ser of notice and citation on husband, seven days before the 19th.

A local branch of the Italian Athletic club was started Monday night at a meeting at the new club house on Rose avenue. Fifty-three tharter memiers were present at the first meeting, and the following officers were elected: Seppo Boumenot, president; Angelo oumenot, vice president; Joseph Tusano, financial secretary; Thomas Tusano, recording secretary; Domenic Albament, transurer; Toseph Salimeno, Louis Pingalore, Michael Berra, trustees; Louis Salimeno, Michael Berra, trustees; Louis Salimeno, Michael Berra, trustees; Tuscano, floor managers. Thursday evening.

Joseph Gaffney, of Pleasant street has been a visitor in Worcester, Mass., recently.

Miss Gertrude Slocum less resumed teaching at Plainfield, N. J., after spending a short vacation with her mother.

Mrs. Bessie A. Slocum of Newton av-

Tuscano, floor managers.

It is the aim of this newly formed club to bring about a spirit of co-operation among the Italian people in town, and to promote clean athletic sports. It is proposed to run boxing and wrestling contests in the club house at Rose average, and to form baseball and football learns to represent the club in contests.

STONINGTON

Community chorus was held in Communi-ty half Tuesday night at 7.30 for the presentation of the opera The Daughter of the Regiment under direction of Dr.

Mrs. James Maxwell of Westerly. grand chief of Rhode Island, was given a rousing reception on her annual visit to Wilcox temple, No. 7. Fythian Sisters, at the regular/monthly maeting heid Monday night in Mechanics hall. Mrs. Maxwell was accompanied by her board of grand officers, and guests were present from Providence, Riverside, Mystic, Willmantic and Maine. During the business meeting, Fred Burdick of Riverside, supreme state representative from the Knights of Pythias, presented Mrs. Maxwell a bouquet and a purse of money, in recognition of the work she has done as supreme state officer of the Pythian Sisters. Following the business. Pythian Sisters. Following the business meeting, the state officers stood in line and were received by the members of the local temple. After the reception, a light collation was served, dancing and a general social time was enjoyed.

MYSTIC

William Joyce, a former resident here is now located in Dover, N. J., where he has charge of the branch office of the Prudential Insurance company, and he and Mrs. Joyce have recently taken up their residence in that city.

The marriage of Walter Manwaring of Pawcatuck and Mrs. Eliza M. Pendieton of North Stenington took place Monday afternoon at the Congregational parsonage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. F. T. Rhoad. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Manwaring will reside in Westerly.

Miss Mary Holmes has returned to New London after a visit with relatives here.

here.
Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Clarke and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Ence Gray in Ledward.
Walter Tucker is in Hartford on bus-

Walter Tucker is in Hartford on business.

Julius and Merrill Foote are confined to the house with mumps.

Mr. Backus of Hartford is the guest of his son, C. R. Backus.

Irene Burnham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burnham has mumps.

Msr. William Bunnell of viambang was taken to the Norwich state hospital a few days ago.

Mrs. Julia Foote, who has been ill for about a week, is somewhat improved.

A public stereopticon lecture extilted "Black Skins, White Souis and Red Blood," is to be given in the Congregational church Friday evenuning by Rev. F. T. Rhoad. A short meeting will be held prior to the lecture.

Mrs. J. Alpheur Schoonover was in Norwich Monday.

Mrs. Frank A. Mitchell of Norwich, a member of the state board of charities, made a visit of inspection at the Stonington Town farm Monday. Mrs. Mitchell arrived just in time to partake of one of Mrs. Dixon's good dinners, and found everything at the town farm in excellent condition.

SCOTLAND

The brothers of the local grange forninshed the program Priday evening in sompetition with the eisters who will give theirs in two weeks. The men had a very good program, and they served the cream at the close of the meeting.

Misses Ella Place and Nellie Gerhardt, who spent the Easter recess at their respective homes, returned for the opening of school Monday morning.

Mrs. Mattie Moffit and daughter Helen and Mrs. Mabel Kenyon spent Easter and a few days fellowing with relatives in Boston.

in Boston.
Since the coming of the new Rev. Allen Gates, the attendance terest seems to be continually at the local church. It is seventy at morning services and overforty at the Christian Endeavor meetings.
Rev. Mr. English of Hartford attended the morning service Sunday and delivered the address. Holy Communion was observed at the close.

So far, about fifty deliars has been raised for the Near East relief fund in delities to sevent individual describes.

addition to several individual denations which have already been sent in.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark and Miss Nettie Moseley spent Easer at the if Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Simel Springfield, Mass.

Mrn. Frances Bacon spent Easter with friends in Willimantic.

John B. Bacon has retired from his store duties here, and he and Mrs. Eason are to leave spon for North Haven, where they will make their home, with their faughter.

they will make their home, with their taughter.

Mrs. Heien Cary and daughter Eugenia have been spending several days at F. A. Burnham's, at Howard Valley.

Caleb Anthony, who is building a new nouse in the village has sold his farm and is to have an auction. The new owner will take immediate possession.

Mrs. Adelaide Fuller of Willimantic, was the guest of local relatives Bunday. Frank Wood has began his duties as janior of the church.

Mrs. F. N. Tyler and daughter Heien spent a few days at F. B. Willoughby's recently.

the Sea.

Mrs. Josie E. Rhodehouse and daughter Ethel have returned to Hoboken, N. J., after a visit with E. A. Monjo and T. W. Reynolds has been retired as Wasterly representative of the Standard Oil company, after having been in their employ for the past 38 years. He will be succeeded by E. H. Ozanne of family.

Miss Mary W. Robinson was home from Newington over the week end.

Mrs. Charles A. Potter and daughter have returned from Maine.

PLAINFIELD

The league bowling match between the citement in the match between Tommy Rhodes of the High Rollers and "Bus" Bussiere of the Indians. It was best three out of five for Rhodes, Bussiers took the first, but Rhodes picked the second and third. The fourth was a tic. but Rhodes took away the fifth and the honors. Rhodes hit 141 in the fifth string. The summary:

A crowded house greeted the minstrels of the Cycle club at the opera house Tuesday night.

The pinochie correst between the Cycle club and the hasonic club have been postponed this week, on account of the superstate. First string 197
Second string 103
Third String 94 Fourth string ....

At the recital given by the pupils of

ERLY

Cushinan, Mrs. Grace C. Slade; baptismal committee, Mrs. E. D. Smith, Nrs. J. H. Committee, Mrs. L. Committee, Mrs.

a success.

Rev. Mr. Burgess gave a special sermon at the Congregational church Sunday.

The April meeting of the shop committee was held in the Community House Monday evening.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Peckham have rent-Mr. and Mrs. Sert Feckham have rent-ed the Deacon Chamberlin cottage, as Mr. Peckham has entered the employ of Wil-liam Child. Mr. and Mrs. Harris May of New Lon-family. Edith and Clara Eddy of Stafford

urday in Worcester.

Walker White has resigned his school at Elvale. Alan Upham will finish out the term.

Gladys Mountain, who has been with Mrs. H. B. Corning in Quinebaug for the past two years, has returned to her

Possibly for the first time in the

"Bayer" on Genuine Aspirin-say "Bayer" presentation of the opera The Daughter of the Regiment under direction of Dr. Jules Jerdan.

A inecting of the American velvet mill wearers was held this week, but as far as ean he gathered he vote was taken on any prepection made to return to work at the mill, but reports are to the effect that some of the sum expressed sentiments which favored a quick return to work. There has been a division among the union nambers. There is an element that wishes to return and take up the offer made by the owners a week ago. Some men gave been tile for four months and are anxious to get money to live. There seems to be every reason to believe that home of the men will present themselves agost to secure a job.

At the annual meeting of the First Baptist thurch Menday evening Dr. Henry M. Thompson, bastor of the church, presided. The election of officers resulted as follows: Clerks and treasurer. Moses A. Pendleton; Edward E. Bradley, Nathaniel P. Neyeal members of advisory committee, Charles G. Cushman, Mrs. E. A. Potter; beaton, John D'Amico; music committee, Mend Janie L. Getes Charles G. Cushman, Mrs. E. A. Potter; beaton, John D'Amico; music committees Mend Janie L. Getes Charles G.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Clerk and treasurer, Moses A. Pendleton; church committee, Horace N. "Bayer" on package or on tablets you ache, lumbago and for pain generally. All drugglists sell Bayer Tables, Chartes G. Cushman, Mrs. E. A. Potter; beaten, John D'Amico; music committee, Miss Janic L. Gates, Charles G. committee, Miss Janic L. Carles G. committee, Miss Janic L. Gates, Charles G.

NORWICH BUICK

319 MAIN STREET, NORWICH, CONN.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT, BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

MEN'S AND YOUNG MEN'S

For this week only our Men's Clothing Department is offering a remarkable group of Suits at $25.00.

The suits are all from our regular stock, and are the season's newest and best styles for men and young men-made of the finest all wool

materials in handsome patterns

The offering is made to acquaint wider circle of men with Manhattan clothes. You are actually saving from $10.00 to $20.00, but you must act quickly for the offering is

All sizes, all models, for men and

121-125 MAIN STREET

"The Kuppenheimer Store"

and tailored to perfection.

for this week only.

young men.

WEIGH

April, Maid of promises.
Love, the wonder-child, redeems
With the subtle crysteries
Of the woods and hills and stream
Thankful we that other lands
Share the gifts the dainty hands
To a world of dream dresms Always bring
When the Winter, when the Winter
Leaves us and we welcome Spring

Leaves us and we welcome Spring

Leaves us and we welcome Spring

spray, ning the grass with shivered; goldss

And this is all we know of such as she.
These shining names she leaves for us
to call;
The whitening hedge, the showery apple And golden jonquils gathering by

All we know of April is her way, And these bright legends we David Morton in The Nation.

HUMOR OF THE DAY Physician-If yor wife is a de-she ordered me to take three months as Palm Beach and went with me herself.—

"This hat does not match my hair."
"Very well, my dear. Do yo want a new hat or different hair?"—Loisville Corice-Jornal.

Little Bob was playing with his mother's opera glasses, and happening is look at her through the big end he ex-

"Oh, mamma! You are so far away you look like a distant relative."—Lon-don Weekly Telegraph. These short skirts-

"I should think a girl's unkles would

"How can her ankles get cold when she has a fur neckplece?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

They had just become engaged.
"I shall love," she coosed, "to share all rour griefs and troubles."
"But, darling," he purred, "I have a living?"

"Others encroach on our preserves," explained the poet. "Decters, lawyers, all sorts of men, write poetry. Yet you never hear of a poet trying to write a legal brief or a prescription."—Louisville Courier. Journal.

Jenkins—Mins Beggs is much edder than I thought. Tempkins—How's that? Jenkins—I saked her if she had read Assop's Fables, and she told me she'd read them when they first came out.— Detroit News.

"Was the costuming of the musical show what you would regard as in good laste?"

"In some degree" replied Miss Cayenne. "I will at least say that solody was what you would call overdressed."—

Washington Star.

Dootse (to profiteer pattent)—I'm alread year have not heeded, my advice to adopt some hobby or fad that would take your mind off your ordinary business.

"Oh. yea I have, doctor."

"What did you take up?"

"Coin collecting."—Boaton Transcript."

"Mother's slightly disappointed in her Christmas gifts."

"What's the trouble?"

"She didn't get a thing worth exchanging for something more desirable."

"Detroit Free Press.

The other day a little faller.

The other day a little fellow was baring a merry romp, regardless of his clothes entirely. During a pause in his play his mother said to him, pointing to two boys in immaculate white suits:
"Look, dear, wouldn't you like to be nice and clean like those children there?"
H'uh? replied the youngster scornfully, "they're not children, they're peta."—
London Opinion.

KALEIDOSCOPE

In a Lendon bird school parrets are taught to talk with phonographs. A young Afghan rarely sees his bride before the day of the wedding. China has a permanent air mail service between Pekin and Tien-Tein.

Pythons in Africa eat goats and pigs but rarely if ever kill children. Every workman in Japan wears on his cap an inacription stating his business and his employer's name.

Improved carburetors and motors get three times the work from a gallon of gasoline that they did 15 years ago, The signature of William Shakespears written on the wall of Hampton Colint palace, and dated 1805, has been prenounced authentic.

Hungary announces an issue of currency to be printed on leather. Pigakin is the chosen material, which is said to be almost impossible to counterfeit.

In the recent war the explosion of shells and the noise of the big guns is Frânce and Belgium was heard in the castern part of England, at distances us to 150 miles.

Eagles have been known to fly to a height of 6,000 feet. A lark will rise to the same height, and so will crown. As a rule, however, it is said, birds do not fly at a greater height than 1,000 feet.

The all of guayac wood, obtained from a South American tree closely related to the lignum-vitae, is used in the perfumindustry for the purpose of producing a ten-rose odor, says the American Forestry Magazine.

According to the American Forestry Mañazine, western Australia has a species of acaoia called raspberry jam wood be-cause of its odor, which is powerful and Since Lenine and Trotsky introduced their bolshevik government into Russias there has been a marked decrease in population. Petrograd having lost more than 70 per ont., while in Moscow the decrease has been nearly one-half, and the total for the cities and towns of the control them.

contry shows a decline of more than 14 per cent. from the mures of 1914. FOR

